Vandals may be sued

SEVERAL graffiti vandals will be hit in the hip-pockets, with a landmark civil action to make them pay for their damage.

Serial graffiti pests sought by Victorian Police could be stung for up to $50,000 each by Casey Council. Casey councillor Steve Beardon said: "It is only right that these vandals should be made to pay for cleaning up their mess, instead of ratepayers," Mr Beardon said.
