MSBF ASSOCIATE MEMBERSHIP

CONDITIONS OF REGISTRATION

- All Snooker Centres shall apply for registration as an Associate Member of the MSBF under Category A & B, whichever is applicable.
- Category A applies to Centres that are already issued with an annual operating license to carry out snooker business within the said premises; Category B applies to those that have applied for the said license, which is pending approval.
- Upon the Category B obtaining the required operating license from the local authority concerned, it can apply to MSBF for upgrading to Category A status.
- Membership fees for Category A and Category B are RM100 and RM1,000 per year respectively. Such fees are payable in advance; membership thereof is renewable each year after the MSBF has served thereto an invoice of demand before January 1.
- If the said demand for renewal fees is not fully settled by January 31, the membership of the said Centre shall deem to have been cancelled without further notice.
- Registered Centres shall be issued in lieu with an Associate Membership Certificate for the year, based on the applicable Category, which shall be renewable each year in the manner as aforesaid.
- Registered Centres can advertise in their publication materials stipulating therein their prescribed Category status of Associate membership.
- Registered Centres can organize tournaments with sanctioned status by the MSBF, subject to due compliance of championship conditions as prescribed, which shall be posted at the MSBF website.
- Registered Centres can follow all published news and activities on the billiards sport in the MBSF website and may participate therein, if qualified. In addition, registered Centres encountering any problems or queries on the technicalities of the billiards sports can write to the MSBF for clarifications.
- Registered Centres can apply to MSBF to enroll any of their players and/or officials to attend a snooker coaching course after paying the applicable fees in advance.
- Registered Centres will receive each year a Calendar of Events, which changes thereto, if any, would be updated in the MSBF website from time to time.
- Registered Centres wishing to witness any overseas tournaments can apply to the MSBF for accreditation to enjoy hotel accommodation at negotiated rates.
- Notwithstanding the aforesaid, all Registered Centres shall be operating their business in strict compliance with licensing conditions issued by the local authority concerned. Under no circumstance whatsoever the MSBF will be held responsible for any such non-compliance.
