

Poem XCIV

At this time of my parting, wish me good luck, my friends! The sky is flushed with the dawn and my path lies beautiful.

Ask not what I have with me to take there. I start on my journey with empty hands and expectant heart.

I shall put on my wedding garland. Mine is not the red-brown dress of the traveler, and though there are dangers on the way I have no fear in my mind.

The evening star will come out when my voyage is done and the plaintive notes of the twilight melodies be struck up from the King's gateway.

*Aamaar jaabaar byalaathey
Sabaai jayadh-dhoni kar:
Vorer aakaash raangaa holo rey,
Aamaar pathh holo soondar.*

*Ki niye baa jaabo sethhaa,
Ogo thoraa vaabis ney thaa,
Soon-no haathe-ee cholbo bohiye aamaar byakoola anthar.*

*Maalaa porey jaabo milan-beshey,
Pothhik-saj-jaa nay:
Baadhaa bipad aachey maajher deshey,
Money raakhi ney sei vay:
Jaath-thra jakhan habey saaraa,
Ootth-bey joley sandhaa thaaraa,
Poorabithey karoon baanshari daarey baajbey modhoor sar.*
