

Show Choir
by Kristin Ransdell

There is nothing I enjoy more than a day spent on the floor of my favorite thing to do in the world.
Up and down and in the air, my body in position without a care, my legs and arms open, straight, or curled.

Boys lifting me and some other girls, dancing with us in awesome twirls, are all part of what we do each day.
We and others are singing loud singing out into the crowd, that sits before us without a word to say.

All together we have much fun, and celebrate when we are done, if we know we tried our very best.
Even if once we didn't place, our attitudes to our disgrace must be in the group the ultimate test.

Show Choir is what it's all about.
Even in our songs we give a shout out to everyone who loves an unusual show.
Singing, dancing, and competitions, and even some shows without admissions, are what we love to do, say yes or no.
