

Name: _____ Sec: _____ Date: _____

Extra Credit!

January/ February “Book of the Month ½ Club” Project Project: Postcard Exchange Between Characters

Grading Rubric

The Front of the Postcards - (Worth 42 Points) Points Earned

Each postcard FRONT is worth 7 points

The front of the 6 postcards (4” by 7”) are decorated with significant scenes from the book using the postcard format. _____
The postcards are colorful and artistic. Any paper or color would do. You included an address for the character and drew a stamp on the upper right side. Your Effort Shows!

The Back of the Postcards - (Worth 48 Points)

Each postcard BACK is worth 8 points

You exchanged postcards between characters in the book using the postcard format. You made sure your 6 post cards contained 6 good-size paragraphs that tell the story thoroughly mentioning the characters, setting, conflict, etc... The reader will understand the novel through your postcards. Your Effort Shows! _____

Quality and Effort - (Worth 10 points)

You watched for neatness and organization. As always, you checked for mechanics. You labeled the postcards with the number of the order in which they should be read. _____
Lastly, you wrapped an elastic around the 6 postcards and include a postcard cover on top with the title of the book, the author, your name, section and date.

Grade Earned: _____