

Re-elect Judge Nadeau Judge of Probate, York County

Ties to York County

1. Father: Roland "Bill" Nadeau, former Gen. Mgr., Sanford Water District.
2. Uncle: J. Raymond "Red" Nadeau, former Sanford Town Clerk/Tax Collector, County Commissioner & Maine State Legislator.
3. Uncle: Henri "Hank" Nadeau, former Sanford Housing Commission & Sanford Water District trustee.
4. Cousin: Richard J. Nadeau, former Maine State Legislator.

Qualifications

1. Probate Judge, York County (1996-present) - the only candidate with judicial experience & training.
2. Fair, impartial & a proven leader.
3. The only candidate with extensive trial, family law, probate & problem solving experience.
4. Member, National College of Probate Judges.
5. Member, Maine Probate Judges Assembly.
6. Captain, U.S. Army JAG Corps (1981-1985).
7. Special Assistant United States Attorney, 1982-1984.
8. Chief Prosecutor, City of Chicopee, MA (1988-1990).
9. Member, Maine, New Hampshire, Mass., federal, military and York County bars.
10. Accepted no financial contributions to fund his campaign.

Accomplishments as Probate Judge

1. Eliminated the historic trial backlog at the York County Probate Court while issuing speedy, thoughtful decisions.
2. Pioneered the award of child support for guardians of children in Maine.
3. Revised Maine's court forms to obtain better medical information to guarantee maximum liberty & dignity for special needs persons.
4. Modified adoption procedures to place more children in good homes.
5. Acclaimed probate & family law expert & author.
6. Spent more than $12,000 of his personal salary for extra staff help and court computers when the county wouldn't help.
7. Spent more than $60,000 of personal funds & time protecting court customers, staff & taxpayers from waste by the elected, non-working Register of Probate.

YOUR VOTE IN THE DEMOCRATIC PRIMARY ON JUNE 8, 2004 IS IMPORTANT!