

Mentor/Job Shadowing Experience

Students should gain the following from their time spent with their mentors:

- Understanding of the daily requirements for the job
- The education and training required for the position
- Real life experience in the job of their choice
- Better understanding of the what the job entails
- Personal experience that is helpful in determining whether or not this is a good career choice for themselves
- Knowledge that is useful for their Senior Project Presentation