General Notes (Husband)

One of the original purchasers of the town of Sharon, CT, 1738. The inhabitants of the town met alternately on the Sabbath, for public worship, at the house of Captain Dunham, and at the house of Mr. Pardee, and in the milder season of the year, the meetings were held in Mr. Pardee's barn.

General Notes (Wife)

By an entry in a Bible published in 1690, in 1924 in the family of Mrs. Myron F Pardee, of Chicago, she was "abducted by the Free Rovers of London and ransomed by Lt. John Pardee.: It is assumed that she was kidnapped to be sold for a bond-servant in America.
