

McNaughton Park 10 Mile Fun Run Registration

Time & Place - April 16, 2005, 6:00 a.m. start. The run will be held in McNaughton Park, Pekin, Illinois. Enter the park turning south off State Highway 98 approximately 1 mile west of Parkway Avenue. Stay south on the paved road, until it turns sharply to the west. The start/finish will be near the end of the pavement.

Course - The course is one loop of the ULTRA course. You will share the same start line and start time with the 30 mile, 50 mile and 100 mile racers. The loop is dirt trails, open fields, hills, and more hills. The course will take you across Lick Creek twice and Indian Creek once. The trail will be marked with red paint on trees, and yellow ribbons on branches. The loop is considered difficult. The hills take their toll. The course could be muddy, depending on how much rain we receive that week. Be prepared. Normal temps are in the 50's.
