A background image of a protest. A large banner in the foreground reads "No World Bank Funds for China's Colonization!". In the background, several people are holding smaller signs, one of which says "FREE TIBET BEFORE FREE TRADE". The scene is outdoors with trees in the background.

Lhadon is the executive director of Students For A Free Tibet and has been active in the global justice movement for years. Join us as she shares her experiences, and learn how the average student can take direct action to make a difference.
