Job Descriptions

The purpose of this document is to define duties for committees and for positions not provided for in the By-laws. The Board of Directors shall have the authority to revise and amend these Job Descriptions at any regular Board Meeting, as defined by the By-Laws.

Building Trustee

Reports To: RCP Board of Directors; routine contact is Vice President

Scope of Term: An Ex-Officio member of the Board, with reporting responsibilities, but with no voting privileges. Has one-year term, renewable each August by a quorum of the Board at its regular meeting. Number of terms shall be unlimited and may be successive, but who fills the position is at the sole discretion of the Board.

The Building Trustee shall chair the Building Committee

Duties:

1. Day to Day Activities
 - Responsible for routine upkeep of all aspects of the Playhouse facility. Includes basic organization of the building, cleaning of rest rooms and trash removal, and making sure the facility is in good operating condition.
 - Has authority to coordinate the purchase of routine cleaning supplies and normal maintenance items during the course of the month, within prescribed dollar limits as directed by the Board.
 - Communicates with show directors to ensure that, during times of rehearsals, the facility is taken care of by both parties, as a joint effort.
 - Has responsibility to report any serious issues immediately to the Vice President of the Board for quick response and least-cost resolution to the issues.
2. Monthly Activities
 - Perform checklist of inspection items for the building and grounds.
 - Prepare Monthly Building Report for presentation to the Board. The Board shall determine whether the Report is presented in person or via a submitted report.
 - The Monthly Building Report shall consist of follow-up items from the previous report, items requested by the Board the previous month, status of current projects, results of recent inspections, and new items to report.

3. Seasonal Activities

- Arrange and coordinate various inspections as required by law or as directed by the Board. Routine items may include furnace inspections and filter changes, etc.
- Maintain sidewalks and other areas in safe repair and clear of snow and ice during winter months.
- Coordinate supplies and work lists for Work Days set by the Board.

4. Annual Activities

- The Building Trustee shall prepare a proposed Annual Building Plan for the Board at its June meeting, requesting consideration for funding for the ensuing year. Projects requested in this Annual Building Plan shall be separated into the following categories: (1) Items that are required to be done to keep the facility and grounds safe, in sound repair, and within the building codes. (2) Requested items that would be enhancements to the building or to the operations of RCP. Each item included in the Plan shall be assigned a rough cost estimate and the recommended priority of the project. The Plan shall be a submitted proposal for planning and financial purposes only. The Board shall have final approval of the Annual Building Plan, and such actions will be communicated back to the Building Trustee.
- The Building Trustee shall prepare an Annual Facility Report for the Board for its presentation to its membership at the Annual Meeting in the format requested by the Board. The Annual Facility Report shall become a part of the official records of the Corporation, as documentation that the organization has routinely and responsibly addressed the needs and upkeep of its facilities.

5. Other Items

- The Building Trustee shall perform other relevant duties as assigned by the Board.
- Communications is a vital ingredient in the success of the Building Trustee position. As outlined in the Policies and Procedures, the Vice President of the Board shall be the liaison with the Building Trustee. The Vice President shall relay pertinent information from the Board to the Building Trustee, so that the direction of the Board is clear and able to be carried out.
