General Expectations of Steering Members

1. Attendance and promptness to meetings is mandatory. Two-day notice is required for absence at meetings. Once the committee has been chosen, steering meetings will generally be held weekly on a night (WEEK NIGHTS ONLY) of the committee's choosing. Steering meetings for RLTI will take place at the Linden office. You can only miss 2 meetings during the planning.
2. Programs and projects must be completed on time, with proper attention paid to all necessary details.
3. All steering members are expected to help encourage other members of the Region to attend the Convention. You will, in effect be a salesperson for the program. (Sorry, no commissions.)
4. Enthusiasm, involvement, and maturity are required of steering members both at steering meetings and at the Convention itself.
5. In the event that these expectations are not met, removal from the steering committee will be considered.
