THE NEW AGE JOINS THE NEW YEAR

March 15, 2004

Alternative beliefs often misinterpreted; however, go ahead and judge these books by the cover.

Anyone following the call of the Metaphysical into 2004 can appreciate how difficult it is to abandon the safety of secrecy and expose the deeply guarded thoughts or feelings that challenge the norm.

'...from the heart...for the soul' defines - through raw emotional honesty - just how profound that calling can be. This collection of poems takes the reader on an inward journey of awakening to enlightenment, from animosity to love, from humor to solemnity, and everywhere in between. The privacy in a wild heart becomes public.....

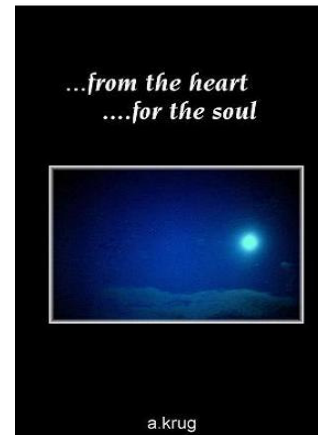

'Coals from the Cauldron' is an eclectic collection of poems, writings, sketches, excerpts, and thoughts... including "Random, at best" From serious to silly, average to unorthodox, this follow up collection is intended to inspire, entertain, and quite possibly offend the socially acceptable boundaries of society today **Includes special guest sections throughout its entirety with author/artist bio included when possible

Get inspired.....
Be delighted.....
