NORTHERN OHIO GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY

Membership

Section 1. The membership shall consist of active, associate, (undergraduate) student, and honorary members.

Section 2. Any person engaged in the work of geology and/or a graduate of an institution of collegiate or university standing, in which he/she has done his/her major work in geology, is eligible for active membership. Any person who has not had the required collegiate or university training, but is recognized as a practicing geologist, shall be admitted to active membership when his/her application has been favorably acted upon by the Executive Committee.

Section 3. Any person who is a graduate of an institution of collegiate standing in which he/she has done his/her major work in science closely related to or generally associated with geology, or whose technical training is deemed by the Executive Committee to be equivalent thereto, shall be eligible to associate membership. Associates shall enjoy all the privileges of active membership in the Society, save that they shall not hold office, sign application for any class of membership, or vote. The Executive Committee may transfer to active membership, upon application, those associates in good standing who have, subsequent to election, fulfilled the requirements thereof.

Section 4. Any person actively engaged in geological studies at an advanced undergraduate level in an institution of collegiate or university standing is eligible for student membership. Students shall enjoy all the privileges of active membership in the Society, save that they shall not hold office, sign applications for any class of membership, or vote; nor shall they have the privilege of advertising their affiliation with the Society in professional cards, professional reports, or otherwise. The Executive Committee may, upon application, advance to active membership those students in good standing who have, subsequent to election, fulfilled the requirements thereof.

Section 5. Persons who have contributed distinguished service to the cause of geology may be awarded honorary membership by the unanimous vote of the Executive Committee. Honorary members shall not be required to pay dues, but shall have all privileges.
