

Brian A. Salmons

www.geocities.com/salmonforgey/CD/Home.html

P.O. Box 533631
Orlando, FL 32853

(321) 331-7120
bsalmons@yahoo.com

Objective To achieve positive outcomes for communities by leveraging my education, my technical experience, my creativity, my strong work ethic and my passion for the issues from within a professional organization.

Education

MS, Community Development, Iowa State (Ames, IA) – exp. August 2009
BA, Anthropology, University of South Florida (Tampa, FL) – 2001
Foreign exchange student at Utrecht University (the Netherlands) – 1997-1998

Recent Coursework

Transportation Planning	Land Use Law
Community and Regional Economic Analysis	Grant Writing for Non-Profits
Principles/Strategies of Community Change	Building Native Communities
Organizing for Community Change	Ecological Economics
Natural Resource Management	Community Analysis/Methodology
Policy/Planning for Coastal Areas

Work History

December 2002 – present :

Conflicts Supervisor/Analyst, Akerman Senterfitt, P.A. (Orlando, FL)

- Daily work consists of data querying and compiling reports of potential legal and ethical conflicts-of-interest regarding the firm's representation of clients
- Devised and implemented quality control process for over 60% of department's work product which significantly increased the firm's protection against litigation
- Completely reviewed, revised and re-implemented departmental procedural guidelines and memos within first 5 months as supervisor
- Daily communication with attorneys and other firm personnel on sensitive matters

March 2006 – August 2006 :

Junior Conflicts Analyst, Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP (Chicago, IL)

- Daily work consisted of in-depth research into corporate affiliations, data querying and compiling reports of potential legal and ethical conflicts-of-interest
- Conducted a presentation to departmental staff on quality control procedures

Other Experience/Activities Organizer for 'Fair Trade for a Greater Orlando Coalition'; volunteer webmaster for Florida political campaigns; volunteer genealogical researcher; memberships: Community Development Society, American Planning Association and Indiana Historical Society.