

Persuasive Review Organizer

Fill out this organizer before you write your review. Remember, your teacher is your audience, and he/she expects you to have arguments that are logical and provable. Make sure you highlight the positive features of your game, and downplay the negative ones. Overall, you should have a solid paper with proof that learning vocabulary online is fun and easy to do.

Introduction: Discuss why learning vocabulary through online games is a good idea.

Paragraph: Explain the rules and object of the game you chose.

Paragraph: Explain why the game you like would be a good choice for your class to play.

Paragraph: Ask yourself what arguments your teacher can make against this game, and come up with thoughts that counter those arguments.

Conclusion: Stress why your game would be good for learning vocabulary.
