

"PEARL"

1. the waves crashed as they moored their boats to shallow waters
 the day's catch waiting for land.

still they cast their nets, til a man called from the shoreline, saying "Follow me. I'll make you fishers of men."

+ He saw potential in those brothers. He saw their spark, their fire, their faith wish I could see in me what He saw in them. Oh, to have the courage of those men.

* show me the pearl locked inside this shell show me my worth when I feel empty. (last time please see me worthy.)

I know the price you paid to rescue me from the deepest ocean
 Take this humble grain of sand & show me the pearl.

2. my hopes dash on the rocks I should be building on
 I sink fast in my sea of doubt.

I'm diving when I should walk on this water.
 Help me catch my breath, sometimes it feels like I'll drown.

+ How do you see my great potential? when all I see is all I lack?
 You pry me open - see my faults & fears, yet you still love me as I am.

You say there's gold in me but the purifying trial by fire Still I stand on the edge of this precipice and say,
