

Michelle Grady Memorial Scholarship

Presented by the
Ramona Santana Riders 2005

The express purpose of Ramona Santana Riders is to promote good horsemanship, and an appreciation for all equines. For these reasons, this Scholarship is being offered to a graduating Senior from High School who is a resident of Ramona. To be considered for the Michelle Grady Memorial Scholarship, the Senior must have had some involvement with horses, must have plans for some continuing education, and must have achieved at least a 2.5 grade point average. The grade point average and the type of continuing education planned will have no bearing on choosing the recipient.
