CHRYS IN BRAZIL

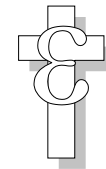

Chrys Graves begins classes this week in his Master of Arts program at San Francisco Theological Seminary. Chrys thanks all who supported and prayed for his mission work in Brazil, and asks for your prayers as he follows God's call to seminary.

Tim and Marta Carriker, our Presbyterian missionaries in Brazil, report a new covenant between the Northeast Presbytery in Brazil and the Presbyteries of Mississippi. The first project was a mission trip to the interior of Brazil to teach about clean water.

Eckerd College

Our Presbyterian College in Florida

We will observe Eckerd College Sunday at both services on Sunday, September 20th.

Recently, the Eckerd College Waterfront Program was recognized as the top-ranked boating and sailing school program in Boat U.S. Magazine's inaugural "Boat Lovers' Guide to American Colleges."

Tiffany Robbins, our IMPACT missionary, asks us to pray for ISAAC, the Impact South African Association for Christ. ISAAC is raising funds for an orphanage to serve neglected or abandoned African children. The project is called "Unakho," which is the Xhosa/Zulu word for "God is Able."

Recently, Thornwell's middle school and high school students spent time with award-winning author, Shelia P. Moses, learning about the writing process and how to put thoughts and research together to create a compelling story.

As the school year approaches, Thornwell needs sponsors for school clothing. The suggested donation to sponsor a child for the year is $300.

Beth El farmworkers mission is collecting school supplies for the fall semester. Among the pressing needs are: pens, pencils, colored pencils, pencil sharpeners, white glue, glue sticks, calculators, dry erase markers, highlighters, index cards, kleenex, and paper plates.

Pray for La Nueva Esperanza, our mission in San Antonio, Puerto Rico.

Be fishers of men.
You catch them - He'll clean them.

The 1st Presbyterian Church of DeBary burned to the ground recently, and Pastor Nathan Wheeler lost his entire personal library, much of which will not be covered. We're being invited by our Central Florida Presbytery to contribute toward restoring it. Make checks out to our church, but marked "DeBary Fire" on the memo line.
