

How many of us don't have a hero? How many of you do not have a role model, or someone to look up to? Our heroes smile to us from the TV and movie screen (if ever!), we see them in the newspaper and we often dream of meeting them in person. Who is your hero, anyway? Would u like to meet him/her face to face? Or maybe you like to have dinner with him/her?

Zap Magazine would like to make your dream come true. Just decide now who your hero is and write us about him or her no later than the end of this month. This is your golden opportunity, so hurry and send in your form today!
