

Dear pupil, there are some words in English that we never bother to have a second look at them, why? Well, some of them are so easy and frequent, so why bother. Two such words are the verbs MAKE and DO, which most probably each of you know. But, have you ever thought how useful these verbs could be? Try this activity out and you'll know!

All of the following words and phrases can come after either MAKE or DO. Try to fill the right verb before them and guess the new meaning.

- | | |
|---------------------------------|-----------------------------|
| 1. Trouble. | 2. your work properly. |
| 3. an appointment. | 4. fun. |
| 5. business. | 6. research. |
| 7. it out with your enemy. | 8. no harm. |
| 9. a mess. | 10. your clothes. |
| 11. a mistake. | 12. a phone call. |
| 13. a fortune. | 14. something wrong. |
| 15. a decision. | |