Grand Knight's Report: Archbishop Burke's farewell mass is Sunday 8/17 at the New Cathedral at 2:30. Anyone wishing to participate in the 4th degree honor guard should arrive by 1:30.

All Knights and spouses are invited to the Rigali center (Laclede station) on 8/25 to hear a presentation from the Office of Evangelization. The Knights of Columbus have been asked to participate in and promote this new program.

The K of C will be attending the Cardinals baseball game on August 24 against Atlanta. Cost is $32. If interested, please call Bill (894-2528) before August 8 to reserve your ticket.

Vote – Remember to vote on August 5. Pro-Life Candidates make great leaders.

Pat and Paul Holzen note: A special thank you for the mass's, prayers, calls, cards, and offers of help during Paul's recent hospitalization. Paul is keeping busy going for treatments and doctor's visits. Please keep Paul in your prayers.

Semi Annual Audit – Our Financial Secretary (Frank Moll), treasurer (John Brendel) and trustees (Matt Bader, Clarence Siebert, and Mike Woerther) recently completed our Financial Audit. Special thanks to these men for a job well done.

Scholarships – The Knights recently awarded monetary scholarships to Eight Grade students Victoria Hunt (SFA) and Samantha Halfmann (SMMA) for their essays on The Responsibility of a Catholic Citizen in a Free Society. Congratulations and good luck in high school.

Drop Box – don't forget to drop off clean personal and bed clothing at our facility on 7381 telegraph Road. Please wrap items in plastic bags. Money derived helps charity.

Council Meeting - Haven't been to a monthly meeting in a while? Why not come to our next meeting on Tuesday 8/12. Rosary is prayed at 7:40 and the meeting starts at 8:00. Come and learn our plans for the year. This is Father McGivney's Birthday. Meet our new district deputy.
