

What kind of God is this?

(NC) C Em F C G C G

1. All praise to the Fa - ther: For - e - ver He has con - trol!
 2. His Son, one time sac - ri - ficed, as - cend - ed from death to life.
 3. His Spi - rit, with - in us, gives knowledge of God and good.
 4. What kind of God is this, whom Life it - self o - beys?

C Em F C G C G C

This great is His pow - er: that all that is, He made to be.
 He now works such pow - er on hate - ful souls, rotting dead in vice.
 A ho - ly com - pan - ion, He guides by still voice and by the rod.
 This One is a - maz - ing -- far past all that e - ver could be known!

G Gm Dm G

He spoke, and it was. His word is a - live, A light, sparking life to once - dead souls.
 He thus makes His peo - ple, Crafts them to - ge - ther, Form - ing a pure and spot - less wife
 To grow His fruit, He fills us with life's jui - ces. Bro - ken from Him, we're dead, dry wood.
 Tran - scendent in power, A - bove us by na - ture, Yet He gives us life to work His ways.

C Em F C Dm G C

Give loud noise of prai - ses for His mighty acts, e - ter - nal - ly.
 to love Him for - e - ver. What work - man - ship! What sac - ri - fice!
 He's ma - king us rea - dy: ac - cept - ab - le, ho - ly un - to God.
 Not "a god", but my God! In awe I em - brace Him as my own.

Music adapted from Brahms' Symphony #1 in C minor, Opus 68, 4th movement.
 This song is in the public domain, and may be used freely.