

2ND SIKH YOUTH LEADERSHIP CAMP

"Youth as Leaders in their Communities"

When: 21st (Friday) – 23rd (Sun) July 2006
(Option to arrive on Thursday Evening for Friday 8:30am Start)

Where: Historic Mowbray Park, Barkers Lodge Road Picton NSW
(About an hour from Sydney CBD & 2 hrs from Canberra)

What: Under the theme of 'Youth as Leaders in their Communities', the participants will learn leadership skills, not in complex high-level talk, but in simple, everyday language, so that they can relate to their unique family, professional and community situation. They will learn from the principles of Sikhism and the leadership of our ten Gurus and transfer those principles back into their real world and be able to make tangible, immediate impact to themselves and those around them!

Facilitators: Camp Facilitators are professional and have an international experience in such camps:

- Pilot Sukhdev Singh
- Veerji Harvinder Singh
- Veerji Satwant Singh
- Veerji Inderjit Singh

Who Should Attend: University students (over 18s only), young adults/couples, who want to be MORE in LIFE, be leaders in their communities or make a difference to those around them.... and have a great time with other Sikhs!!

How Much: Early Bird Discount (book before 7th July) → $175/person
