TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Daniel Simpson commenced employment with this Company on 20th October in an Operational/Accounts related capacity.

The position required Daniel to be based at our Operations Office, situated near the Hamilton Wharves, and work with a minimum of direct supervision.

During his term of employment his duties have involved him in a wide range of activities including liaison with, Contractors regarding invoicing, Head Office - Sydney, Overseas Principals and Shipboard Personnel.

Dan' was most keenly interested in pure operational work and as far as possible we encouraged development of this interest. This ultimately lead to complete interchangeability with our other Operations Personnel, which proved invaluable especially during long periods of Annual Leave.

Dan' Simpson freely resigned from the Company on 15th July to take up a position with another Shipping Agency.

I would personally recommend Daniel to any prospective employer as he has displayed remarkable initiative and enthusiasm towards his work.

K. McNaughton.

Shipping Manager.
