The candidate is assessed in the selection and application of acquired and developed skills, tactical awareness and behaviour in formal competitive situations which focus on;

- techniques;
- tactical awareness;
- behaviour.

Assessment is based on performance in a formal competitive situation where the candidate performs the acquired and developed skills under pressure in a strategic situation. The level of success of the acquired and developed skill is measured through the movement phases identified below:

- preparation;
- execution;
- recovery;
- results;
- overall efficiency.

These assessment phases are used in conjunction with the following assessment criteria for the formal competitive situations.

Unit 2567

Marks	Description
25-30	Candidate demonstrates a very high level of acquired and developed skills that show a consistently high standard of accuracy, control and fluency. There is successful selection and application of more advanced techniques where accuracy, control and fluency remain despite competitive pressures. The candidate introduces strategies at a high level and demonstrates an understanding of tactics to outwit the opposition. Performances in the formal competitive situations are excellent and progress has allowed them to achieve their performance based targets. An excellent level of physical endeavour and sportsmanship is evident combined with flair. National/Regional representation may be an indicator of attainment of this high standard but assessment criteria must still be met.
19-24	Candidate demonstrates a high level of acquired and developed skills that illustrates a very good standard of skill production. There is consistent success in the selection and application of advanced techniques in the game. Under competitive pressure the level of technical accuracy, control and fluency is normally good. The candidate shows a good understanding of the perceptual requirements to perform and introduces a range of tactics and strategies to use successfully against the opposition. Performances in the formal competitive situations are very good and improvement has been such as to allow a high standard of learning and understanding. A high level of physical endeavour and sportsmanship is evident combined with flair. Regional/County representation may be an indicator of attainment of this standard but assessment criteria must still be met.
13-18	Candidate demonstrates a good level of acquired and developed skills that allows for a sound standard of performances in the game. There is a sound level of success in the selection and application of advanced techniques in the game and under competitive pressure the level of accuracy, control and fluency is reliable. The candidate is able to introduce and use tactics and strategies to show a sound understanding of the performance requirements against opposition. Performances in the formal competitive situations are good and improvement reflects satisfactory learning and understanding. A good level of physical endeavour and sportsmanship is evident combined with some flair. District/Area/School/Local club representation may be an indicator of attainment of this standard but assessment criteria must still be met.
7-12	Candidate demonstrates an improving level of acquired and developed skills that allows for an average level of performances in the game. There is an attempt to select and apply advanced techniques in the game and under competitive pressure accuracy, control and fluency are usually achieved. The candidate has a basic perception of the requirements of performance and is able to introduce and use tactics and strategies at satisfactory level. Performances in the formal competitive situations become more consistent and progress has allowed some learning and understanding. A competent level of physical endeavour and sportsmanship is evident combined with a little flair. Representing the school/college but not at first team level may be an indicator of attainment of this standard but assessment criteria must still be met.
0-6	Candidate demonstrates a moderate level of acquired and developed skills that leads to a moderate level of performances. There is an attempt to select and apply advanced techniques and under pressure there is a level of technical accuracy, control and fluency. The candidate is able to incorporate some tactics and strategies with a limited perception of the requirements of performance. Performances in the formal competitive situations have some consistency with a degree of learning and understanding. A level of physical endeavour and sportsmanship is evident. The candidate plays occasionally in a team.
