FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ROLLER MAGIC ROLLER RINK HOSTS SK8 AGAINST BREAST CANCER Event to Raise Funds and Awareness for the American Cancer Society's Making Strides Against Breast Cancer Walk in Woodbridge

South Amboy, NJ, August 19, 2009—This Columbus Day, South Amboy residents can fight cancer while skating the day away. The 12-hour Sk8 Against Breast Cancer event taking place at Rollermagic Roller Rink in South Amboy, will help the American Cancer Society help people in Middlesex County get well, stay well, find cures and fight back. It will take place on October 12, 2009, from 10a.m. to 10 p.m. and promises to be 12 hours of fun, games and donated prizes.

Admission is $7 for children and $10 for adults, and 100 percent of the admission fees will go to the American Cancer Society's Making Strides Against Breast Cancer walk taking place at Woodbridge Center on October 18th. Additional donations are appreciated and can be made by cash or check made out to the American Cancer Society. Checks will be accepted in person or by mail to the American Cancer Society; C/O South Amboy Arena; P.O. Box 128, South Amboy, NJ 08879. (No Passes, Coupons or Credit Cards will be accepted toward admission on October 12th).
