

PROGRAMME PROPOSAL

A 2-day in-house programme on

BUSINESS WITH INTEGRITY

~ Implement optimal integrity management techniques ~

The Rational

Institutionalizing integrity in government and private sector organization by now should be treated as management's number one agenda in this century. It saddened us to see that more often than not, organizations and states failed due mainly to the fact that the key players simply lack noble values. Cause such as breach of ethics, bribery, the practices of cronyism and nepotism, conflict of interest, abused of power and other forms of deviant acts nowadays seem to be the norm rather than the exception. The scourges of this negativism have to be eradicated from our society before they become cancerous. For this very reason, this two day course on management of integrity is organized with the followings set objectives.

Benefit

1. To impart knowledge to course participants on the concept and underlying principles of integrity.
2. To get a better understanding on what constitutes corrupt acts and what not.
3. To inculcate in participants a positive values of abhorrence towards deviants acts in whatever forms.
4. To develop a role model of a person with integrity that can and will have multiplying effect in their respective organization.

Outline

1. Malaysia's National Integrity System
2. Fighting corruption; Why are we concerned about it?
3. Gifts and conflicts of Interest
4. What is an Integrity System
5. Building and maintaining institutional integrity
6. Raising public awareness and building political will
7. The right to information
8. Measuring corruption performance
9. Best practice
10. Recap of the learning journey

Facilitator

This course is to be conducted fully by Dr. Dusit Jaul, currently Senior Project Coordinator with INTAN Sarawak. He is Institut Integrity Malaysia's (IIM) and UNDP's certified trainer for this course. Dr. Dusit will conduct this course based on IIM and UNDP's module.

Facilitation Fees

To be discussed with clients