Telephone: (212) 456-7890
Address: 187 Madison Street, New York, New York

Mission Statement:

To provide families with a safe, environment to eat authentic Italian food that will have people coming back for more.

Pasta Amore History:

An Italian restaurant that has been in the family since its founding in 1915. During the winter of the winter war, Antonio & his family left the land behind and came to New York in 1915 by the Cooking Channel. It has since been named in the top ten places to eat by the New York Times. All through out our history we have only used the finest and freshest ingredients that come for delivery. We have moved from our original place for Amore, there to our current place back in 2015 to accommodate for more customers.
