

Dear Seniors:

As you join us in our remembrance of our days at Woodlawn we realize that we will never forget the lessons we've learned here inside and outside the classroom.
Though we will move on in separate directions we can find solace in knowing that the very first step on these uncertain journeys toward a collection of goals and aspirations will be taken together.

as

Woodlawn High School's Graduating Class of Nineteen Hundred and Ninety-Seven.

Sincerely,
Your Class Officers:
Erica L. Berndsen,
Trevia L. Brady,
Tiffany J. Fennoy, and,
Brooke A. Whitaker

SENIOR FAREWELL

May 23, 1997

Welcome and Introduction of Ms. Barnes.....	Mr. and Mrs. Sarick
Introduction of M.C.'s.....	Mr. and Mrs. Sarick
Musical Selection: "Count on Me".....	originally by Whitney Houston and CeCe Winans performed by Tasha Williams and Candace Ashes
Video: 1997 Bakyfaces.....	compiled by Patrick Stenmark and Treva Beady
Poem: "A Journey".....	by Nikki Giovanni performed by Ebony Kenney
Musical Selection.....	WHS Jazz Quintet
Class of 1997 Senior Self Poll Awards.....	Calmey Staff
Musical Selection.....	Kendrea Baker
Memories from Class Officers & Presentations to Faculty.....	1997 Class Officers
Moment of Silence.....	Carlton Ferguson and Erica Berndsen
Poem: "It Couldn't Be Done".....	by Edgar A. Guest performed by Kristy Teulier
Musical Selection.....	Woodlawn Choir
Final Address.....	Mr. and Mrs. Sarick

The End