Christianity is simply anti-spiritual irresponsible abusiveness. Avoid such celebrations in temples and in the media. The mind is like a satellite dish that can be pointed downward for clever and deceptive pick-ups, but should be pointed straightly up for best reception. Advice on signal reception (discernibly "good", "cooked", and plain "bad intel") is on the group page under "Spiritual Peace for the Battleground of Earth".

"AOL" means Army of Light – and signifies the children of gods who are of the good persuasion. AOLs constantly choose good and want to know what their own mistakes are, so that they can make correction and become better souls. Essentially, AOLs are all #1) Friendly [whether they get along momentarily or not], #2) Pentecostal [libertines alive with the fires of life – casting off moral restraint and freethinking], and #3) Messianic [fully self-responsible, with self-awareness, and self-recognition of the Messiah oneself; yet seeing all-transcendent God as the number one (the one up) and oneself as essentially a zero, which makes sense, because one must zero on oneself to transcend.] AOL tactics include expressing the objective truth, taking personal responsibility for all of one's own actions (but no-one else's), only issuing oneself command statements, and limiting one's thoughts to simple, honest, specifics. See "Liberative's Website Text Bits" at SFA.

"AOD" meanwhile, is the opposite – Army of Darkness. AOD signifies the children of gods who are of the evil persuasion. AODs constantly choose evil and don't want to know what their own mistakes are, so that they can avoid facing the inevitable consequences. Essentially, AODs are all #1) Enemies [to each and everyone else, whether the others are AOLs, even other AODs, and consequentially the AOD oneself], (although frequently pleasant-seeming.), #2) Bound up in rules and regulations, including restrictions against valuable and effective thinking, and #3) Bent toward compartmentalizing and isolation. AOD tactics in the Holy War include #1) the deceptive use of pronouns (so as to throw one's attention from the real person issue – usually the AOD personally to a vulnerable person (often one inclined toward the AOL, #2) making false accusations (libels and slanders), issuing evil command statements, and INSULT STATEMENTS with blinding sounds such as "Can't you see . . ." (meaning "You can't see!") and "Don't you see . . ." ("You, don't see!") What follows is usually a distraction in nature, if not an inversion of the truth. "SHAY" is a sound tempting an opponent to open oneself to false feelings of guilt.

While it is not always so, in the Spirit World (as it is known on the planet earth), the morphemes (bits of sound) that sound like "WE" and "US" are usually forms of self-reference for AOL and AOD. AOL typically refers to itself with the sound "WE", which represents the actual word "we", the French word "oui" (meaning "yes"), and the other English word "wee" (signifying smallness and humility). The number of AOL's "WE" is always clear, and essentially is ONE (getting back to the Messianic principle). AOD typically refers to itself with the sound "uh-sss" – which sounds like the word "us" but is essentially a "schwa" (or "ə" – short "u" followed by a hiss. The number of AOD's "uh-sss" is always unclear: AODs are demon-driven and lacking self-recognition. "SORRY" signals that one does (or will) determines a fault in oneself.

Sorcery is using demons to cause harm to other people, and in the early Middle Ages (500 to 600 C.E.), Morgan la Fey meaning "queen of the incubi [male sexual demons]" was a sorceress – the archenemy of the good Merlin. Morgan was jealous of Merlin, and thus of King Arthur, so Morgan tried to turn Queen Guinevere against them both. While Guinevere was adulterous with Sir Lancelot, Morgan encouraged Arthur to rape Guinevere, her strategy being that Guinevere would leave Arthur for Lancelot permanently and Arthur's emotions would be severely wounded. Morgan used her sorcery and power over other people in order to appropriate the Middle English word "slutte" (meaning "muddy ditch") by adapting that (figurative) word to form the word "slut"; and she associated the new word with the end of "Lan... celot". Her ploy proved popular – something that unsuspecting people came to blame on the innocent. And thus, the inverted hierarchy governed from below by Satan enacted rape as a social institution.

Over the centuries, Morgan's soul has come and gone; most recently, being born into the form of famous rock singer Stevie Nicks. Stevie Nicks is famous for associating herself with the word "Belladonna" – the title of one of her compilation records. Technically, belladonna is a poisonous European plant of the nightshade family, with purplish or reddish bell-shaped flowers and shiny black berries, also called "deadly nightshade". In some places, the word "belladonna" means "rape victim", because the belladonna plant is used to drug rape victims, facilitating the violation. Note the absolute difference between "belladonna" (a plant) and the "prima donna" (a human; specifically, a female lead operatic singer). Modern prohibition against the belladonna plant has led to its substitution with phencyclidine (a.k.a. "angel dust"). The effects of the two are similar, producing quasi-comatose states.

Morgan le Fay and her modern angel dust cult (Stevie Nicks in person, besides many other "white" supremacists such as Dolly Parton and Lita Ford, plus millions of followers) worked to snap out the birth souls that were born to be the drivers of biological organisms homo sapiens (especially females) – trapping them in stasis, so that demonic forces could drive the homo sapiens instead. Thereby, Morgan could rule over her evil empire. Returning souls from such stasis is precarious work, but recently soul emancipation and body reacquisition increased.

When Stevie Nicks (formerly Morgan la Fey) reached menopause, her selfish followers became increasingly vocal about wanting rape, gagging, and sympathy (sympathy, as in Sympathy for the Devil). Stevie's thinking became fixated on the moment and she isolated herself in personal fantasy. Evil command statements from her cult climaxed about two weeks ago. For questionable reasons, Stevie went into a comatose state. Summarily, her soul was obliterated, through what I understand is called the Obliteration Protocol (or "OP").

Stevie Nicks and Adolf Hitler both falsely claimed they were "white", although clear observation and truthfulness reveals that homo sapiens skin tones are never white (as they likewise are never black). Instead, homo sapiens have skin tones that range in organic colors – mostly sugar-cookery, chocolatty, apricot, caramelly, and maple-syrupy. In parallel, significant work was begun to destroy modern Hitlerism – "The Cult of US". A terrible aspect of Hitlerism was that it made people fear personal mind control (liberty of thought), although we need mind control vitally. For pointers, see "Free Mind Control" at SFA. Particularly, the dismantling of Hitlerism is being accomplished through the eradication of "Mein Kampf by Adolf Hitler" from library holdings. For text to copy, perhaps change for style, and e-mail out to help this initiative, see "Make Library People Stop Holding Mein Kampf" at SFA.

Like boomerangs, spiritual actions each move in a revolution coming back to the throwers – right to their points of origin. Thus, it is foolish to throw boomerangs if one cannot see what one is doing (especially evil and hateful boomerangs); however, good-flavor boomerangs return with the same flavor – as do bad with bad. Whatever moral flavor the boomerang was going out is the same flavor coming back. The OP returns innumerable bad boomerangs in a split second, while the time (as it passes for the AOD) seems eternal. Test this protocol, ask "You down with the OP?" and say "God, then let that be!

From a Webster's dictionary perspective, "medicine" is the science and art of preventing disease, relieving pain, and improving and preserving health. Psychiatry is administering chemicals to limit brain functions and anesthetize the mind. Particularly, psychiatry silences victims to prevent them from informing on predators who have harmed them, whether or not such harm actually led to psychotic episodes or not. Therefore, legitimate psychology is a field of medicine; whereas psychiatry is never medicine at all. Basically, don't take any drugs. Peace!
