

Georgia Institute of Technology
Society of Women Engineers

presents

Region D Conference 2009

Innovation & Collaboration:
Fueling the World of Tomorrow

aspire

advance

achieve

Society of Women Engineers

Georgia Institute of Technology

- largest section in Region D
- over 100 current members will be present in 2009
- full support of GT College of Engineering & ATL-SWE

health

sustainability

Innovation & Collaboration: Fueling the World of Tomorrow

March 6, 2009 – March 8, 2009

security

environment

energy

Schedule of Events

Friday, March 6

- Check-in/Registration
- Professional tours
- Atlanta site-seeing
- Professional development
- Regional Leadership Training
- Welcome dinner

Saturday, March 7

- Breakfast
- Workshops
- Forums
- Networking luncheon
- Career fair
- Region meetings
- Keynote dinner & awards ceremony

Sunday, March 8

- Farewell breakfast
- Atlanta site-seeing
- Professional tours

Welcome to Atlanta

Transportation

Hartsfield-Jackson International Airport

Tech Trolley

MARTA public transit

Renaissance Marriott

$124/night

Registration

Student Fee

- $45 early
- $55 late

Professional Fee*

- $85 early
- $95 late

Non-Member Student Fee

- $55 early
- $65 late

Non-Member Professional Fee*

- $100

*Based on feedback from Miami, optional professional development training (extra $100)

T
O
U
R
S

Georgia Aquarium
$23.50/person

New World of Coca Cola
$14.00/person

T
O
U
R
S

T
O
U
R
S

High Museum of Art
$13-15.00/person

Inside CNN Atlanta Tour
$10.00/person

T
O
U
R
S

Workshops

- “Georgia Tech Women: Fueling the Future”
- “Sustainability at Georgia Tech”
- “Creating a Professional Image”
- “Wealth Management for Women”
- “Keeping Your Skills Current”
- “Business Etiquette”
- Self-defense for Women

Forums

- Global Challenges: Solutions for the Future
- Graduate Education: Is it for You?
- Off the Beaten Path: Non-Traditional Engineering Jobs

Region Meetings

- Student Region
- Joint Region
- Professional Region

aspire

advance

achieve

Note: Georgia Tech women faculty will be highlighting their research

Explore Atlanta...

Hope to see you here!

