About this BrokerCheck Report	6

Dear Investor:

NASD has generated the following BrokerCheck report for LEONARD GZESH. The information contained within this report has been provided by an NASD brokerage firm(s) and securities regulators as part of the securities industry's registration and licensing process and represents the most current information reported to the Central Registration Depository (CRD®).

NASD regulates the securities markets for the ultimate benefit and protection of the investor. NASD believes the general public should have access to information that will help them determine whether to conduct, or continue to conduct, business with an NASD member. To that end, NASD has adopted a public disclosure policy to make certain types of information available to you. Examples of information NASD provides include: regulatory actions, investment-related civil suits, customer disputes that contain allegations of sales practice violations against brokers, all felony charges and convictions, misdemeanor charges and convictions relating to securities violations, and financial events such as bankruptcies, compromises with creditors, judgments, and liens.

When evaluating this report, please keep in mind that it may include items that involve pending actions or allegations that may be contested and have not been resolved or proven. Such items may, in the end, be withdrawn or dismissed, or resolved in favor of the individual broker, or concluded through a negotiated settlement with no admission or finding of wrongdoing.

The information in this report is not the only resource you should consult. NASD recommends that you learn as much as possible about the individual broker or firm from other sources, such as professional references, local consumer and investment groups, or friends and family members who already have established investment business relationships.

NASD BrokerCheck is governed by federal law, Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) regulations and NASD rules approved by the SEC. State disclosure programs are governed by state law, and may provide additional information on brokers licensed by the state. Therefore, you should also consider requesting information from your state securities regulator. Refer to www.nasaa.org for a complete list of state securities regulators.

Thank you for using NASD BrokerCheck.

Using this site/information means that you accept the NASD BrokerCheck Terms and Conditions. A complete list of Terms and Conditions can be found at

About this BrokerCheck Report

BrokerCheck reports are part of an NASD initiative to disclose information about NASD-registered firms and brokers to help investors determine whether to conduct, or continue to conduct, business with these firms and brokers. The information contained within these reports is collected through the securities industry's registration and licensing process.

Who provides the information in BrokerCheck?

Information made available through NASD BrokerCheck is derived from CRD as reported on the industry registration and licensing forms brokerage firms and brokers are required to complete.

The forms used by brokerage firms, Forms BD and BDW, are established by the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) and adopted by all state securities regulators and self-regulatory organizations (SROs), such as NASD and the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE). NASD and the North American Securities Administrators Association (NASAA) establish the uniform forms that collect broker information, Forms U4 and U5, as well as the uniform form used by regulators to report certain disciplinary history about brokerage firms and brokers, Form U6, with input from SROs and firms. These forms are approved by the SEC and then adopted by state securities regulators and SROs. The most currently available information on brokers and brokerage firms is made available through BrokerCheck.

How current is the information contained in BrokerCheck?

Brokerage firms and brokers are required to keep this information accurate and up-to-date. The report data is updated when a firm, broker, or regulator submits new or revised information to CRD. Generally, updated information is available on BrokerCheck Monday through Friday.

What information is NOT reported through BrokerCheck?

Information that has not been reported to the CRD system or that is not required to be reported, is not disclosed through NASD BrokerCheck. Examples of information that are not required to be reported or are no longer reportable include: judgments and liens originally reported as pending that subsequently have been satisfied and bankruptcy proceedings filed more than 10 years ago.

Additional information not disclosed through BrokerCheck includes Social Security Numbers, residential history information, and physical description information. On a case-by-case basis, NASD reserves the right to exclude information that contains confidential customer information, offensive and potentially defamatory language or information that raises significant identity theft or privacy concerns that are not outweighed by investor protection concerns.

Under NASD's current public disclosure policy, in certain limited circumstances, most often pursuant to a court order, information is expunged from the CRD system. Further information about expungement from the CRD system is available in NASD Notices to Members 99-09, 99-54, 01-65, and 04-16 at www.nasd.com

For further information regarding NASD's BrokerCheck program, please visit NASD's Web Site at www.nasd.com/brokercheck or call the NASD's BrokerCheck Hotline at (800) 289-9999. The hotline is open Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., Eastern Time (ET).
