PRESS RELEASE

National Medical Admission Test (NMAT) Schedule for Medical Studies in the Philippines
Los Angeles, November 8, 2008

The Philippine Consulate General in Honolulu would like to announce to the Filipino American community and the general public that the National Medical Admission Test (NMAT) for 2008 will take place in Los Angeles. Students planning to pursue medical studies in the Philippines can take the qualifying examinations required by the Commission on Higher Education (CHED) without going to the Philippines. The Center for Educational Measurement, Inc. (CEM), which is based in Makati City, Metro Manila, Philippines was commissioned by the CHED to administer the annual NMAT in the US and in the Philippines.

The examinations will be conducted in Los Angeles on November 08, 2008. Interested parties may wish to contact Mr. Godfrey Vergara, the NMAT coordinator for Los Angeles. For details of the test, please call the following representatives:
